SANDFORD NOT PRESENT

Says the Statements Made by Mrs. Clark Are False.

WAS IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Emphatically Denies That He Was In Any Manner Connected With Tragic and Cowardly Assassination of the Late Governor Goebel.

New York, Sept. 24.—Captain Cassius Marshall Sanford, only son of the late John Sanford of Covington, Ky., who was referred to in the affidavit of Mrs. Lulu Williams Clark in Sunday's newspapers as "John Sanford" and as having been present in the statehouse at Frankfort when Governor Goebel was killed, issued a positive denial of every one of the statements through his attorney, Charles Strong of New York. Captain Sanford, who is now living at New York, after a residence of eight years in China and the Philippines, said:

"Every one of the statements of Mrs. Clark is absolutely false. I never knew her (Mrs. Clark), or Gertrude King, to whom it is said I paid attentions, or Turner Igo or any one else mentioned in the affidavit. At the time of the killing of Governor Goebel Feb. 8, 1906, I was in the Philippines on business, living with a number of army officers, with whom I can prove my residence there at that time. Subsequently I entered the Philippine constabulary, rising to the rank of captain. I resigned my commission in March of this year of my own accord and have since been in business in this city. I have never been connected in any way with the Goebel murder or know anything about it. I shall gladly appear in court at any time or place to refute these falsehoods."

Sweeping Order Issued.

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—Judge Lochren of the United States court issued an order for a injunction which absolutely ties up the rates commodity rate law pending final decree in the case or until the lower court's decision is overruled in appeal by the state. The order is sweeping in its terms.

General Clay Dies Suddenly.

Washington, Sept. 24.—General Cecil Clay, general agent of the department of justice, died here suddenly. He had been in poor health for some weeks. General Clay was sixty-five years old and a native of Philadelphia.

CLEVELAND'S CONDITION

It Is Reported That the Former Chief Magistrate

IS GRADUALLY DECLINING

Another Physician, a Specialist of the Stomach, Has Been Engaged, but the Distinguished Patient Declares That "I Will Be All Right Soon."

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 24.—The very shadows are seemingly closing in around ex-President Cleveland. He is slowly, but surely, giving way to the forces of disease.

These are anxious days at Westland, the home of the Cleveland, and although Mrs. Cleveland and her friends put on a brave front in public they are plainly apprehensive. This is best shown by the summoning here of Mrs. Cleveland's mother, Mrs. E. P. Folsom, who accompanied by a New York specialist on the stomach, Dr. Banks, is now chairman of the case, but declines to discuss it other than to say Mr. Cleveland is doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Carnahan and Bryant, who have attended the ex-president in the past, are still assisting in his care. They are said to differ decidedly over the treatment. All agree Mr. Cleveland's condition is such that, while he may show temporary improvement, he can never again resume active labor. He spends a great deal of his time in bed, and when he is able to go for a drive he has to be almost lifted into the carriage.

Mrs. Cleveland is a devoted nurse, and her devotion to her husband's wants is touching. It was at the instance of Mrs. Folsom that Dr. Banks was called in.

The frequent attacks of acute indigestion, attended with complications of gout and rheumatism, and touches of weakness of the liver disease, have so weakened Mr. Cleveland that he was not responsive to local treatment. It is by the doctor's order that no information be given to his condition be made public.

"I am not one who inquires that I will be all right soon," is the order he has been told to have issued, and this is strictly obeyed.

TARPON ATTACKS BOAT.

Causes Decided Commotion, but Is Eventually Captured.

Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 24.—A party sailing in a boat near Laguna Vista, a new town near Point Isabel, was attacked by a tarpon. The waters from the pass at Brazos de Santiago up Laguna Madre, are fairly alive with tarpon.

A fierce battle ensued, the tarpon doing considerable damage to the boat, but was killed as he leaped out of the water into the boat, striking one of the party a planing blow. Then the tarpon leaped from one end of the boat to the other, jumped up in the air four feet, knocked a plank out of the hands of the captain who was aiming a blow at it and almost threw the captain out of the boat. The tarpon was not a very large one for the waters there, weighing 173 pounds and was 5 feet 7 inches long.

MRS. HOLT PICKS COTTON.

Prominent Houston Society Lady Gathers Fleecy Staple on Farm.

Houston, Sept. 24.—The wife of Hon. O. T. Holt went to the farm of her brother in Washington county Tuesday and started to pick 100 pounds of cotton in order to secure a donation of $100 from the cotton firm of McFadden Bros. of New York, who agreed to pay the lady $1 per pound for each pound she picked, the money to be applied to the faith house at Houston. At noon she had picked fifty pounds and started in the afternoon after the other fifty.

TONGUE CUT OUT.

Cut Into Four Pieces and Pinned Upon Boy's Breast.

Rome, Sept. 24.—Antonio Lombardo, seventeen years old, whose father is employed in the United States, was taken by five members of the Mafia society into a forest, his tongue cut out, sliced into four parts and pinned upon his breast. A stiletto was driven into the boy's heart and he was pierced with sixty-seven dagger wounds. The unfortunate youth was suspected of betraying the whereabouts of a notorious Mafia leader.

GOT JUST DESERTS.

Knocked Down With Saucepan and Hot Water Poured On Negro.

Denison, Sept. 24.—A drunken negro insisted on entering the kitchen of Mrs. McKittick. Grabbing a saucepan, the lady knocked him down. She then poured hot water upon his anatomy. "Murder!" screamed the now sobered Senegambian as he dashed out the door to the friendly shades of a nearby forest.

Wu Reappointed.

Pekin, Sept. 24.—The reappointment of Wu Tang Fang to his former post as minister of China at Washington, was gazetted Tuesday.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, SEPT 25, 1907

Bryan is first of all an educational center, and every citizen of Bryan is proud of such pre-eminence.

A refusal to admit Oklahoma would be a denial of the right of self-government by the people. Are the republicans ready to meet this issue in the election next year?

Some of the "chroniclings" of the Houston Chronicle are gems; for instance, this: "The souls of bad people suffer from wickedness as from a consumption."

It is generally conceded now, even by his opponents, that Bryan will head the democratic ticket next year, hence those who oppose him are talking only in whispers.

Some of our exchanges speak of the good effects of the new law providing penalties for husbands and fathers who abandon or fail to provide for their families. It ought to be enforced rigidly everywhere.

The South will not object to giving Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler second place on the ticket. He is a worthy young man, and well qualified to preside over the United States senate, which is about all that would be expected of him.

State Health Officer Brumby will send a specialist to test the eyes of 12,000 school children in Dallas and Fort Worth with the view of ascertaining the approximate number of children with eye troubles and defects, for the purpose of forming some idea of the necessity of extending the inspection to all the children in the state.

The homing pigeon has won an honorable place in poetry and romance as a carrier of love's missives, but a rival has arisen in an unexpected quarter; an Oklahoma lover, who was forbidden to visit his sweetheart on a neighboring farm, employed a turkey gobbler to carry his letters to her.

Every Texas boy who can make it possible to do so should enter an industrial or technical school this fall if old enough and otherwise qualified. Texas will find remunerative occupation for every specially educated young man in agriculture and mechanics for long years to come.—Beaumont Enterprise.

This is splendid advice, and the hope is expressed that many a Texas youngster will heed it. The mechanic and scientific man can beat his professional brother getting a good fat job any day in the week.—Austin Statesman.

The Eagle preaches the same doctrine. Let's keep it up until every boy and girl in Texas will have the opportunity to learn what they will need to know when they become men and women.

State Press of the Galveston News argues that a bee that won't sting won't work. Is a thornless rose not beautiful? Is Burbank's thornless cactus less nutritious

PROGRESS OF THE DEFEY CASE

Hon. L. T. Dashiell Here from Austin as Attorney in the Case.

The selection of the jury in the Defey case was concluded at noon yesterday in the district court from the second venire summoned. The jurors chosen are as follows: A. A. Dean, J. T. Cartledge, J. L. Lloyd, M. S. Freeman, I. J. Riley, J. S. Byars, J. J. Vandiver, B. Kaczer, J. R. Edmonds, W. W. Weaver, W. A. Hudson, I. N. Broadaway.

Witnesses were sworn in when court resumed work at 1 o'clock, and the state began introducing testimony. Those placed on the stand yesterday were H. L. Hays Sr., Dr. Gibson, Dr. Patton, H. L. Hays Jr., C. T. Burtis.

The examination of each witness takes up considerable time and the indications are that the trial will be somewhat long drawn out.

Hon. L. T. Dashiell, secretary of state and former district attorney of the Madison county district, has arrived and is taking part in the case as an attorney assisting the prosecution.

AMUSEMENTS.

Tonight's offering at the Grand opera house will be "Sis in New York," and by the advance announcements said to be a refreshing musical comedy of Indiana rural life and the adventures of a Hoosier lass in the great metropolis.

Friday night Sept. 27, will bring to Bryan the Dandy Dixie Minstrels. Manager Mike requests announcement that the entire gallery will be occupied by the colored people, and reserved seats may be had in the gallery for fifty cents if bought before six o'clock Friday evening.

"The Girl of the Street" was presented last night before a fair sized audience, and proved better than the name promised. There is a good deal of comedy running most too much to horse play, and usual melodrama effects, rather more spirited than common. The play moves along briskly with plenty of life and action, centering around the title role which was in good hands. The gallery was vociferous at times, and the down stairs mildly responsive.

ALLEN ACADEMY'S BIG ATTENDANCE.

One Hundred and Fifty Students Have Matriculated—More than One Hundred are Boarders.

The Eagle is pleased to state that the Allen Academy of this city is enjoying the most prosperous beginning of any year in its history. One hundred and fifty students have matriculated and new boys are still coming in every day. Of this large number over one hundred are boarding students. This record is fully forty per cent ahead of the same date last year and very gratifying to the Academy management and to the friends of this excellent and far famed school here and elsewhere.

VITAL STATISTICS.

Dr. Brumby Suggests a Method of Gathering Them.

Austin, Sept. 24.—By a supreme effort State Health Officer Brumby has succeeded in, to some extent at least, reviving the vital statistics bureau, which was created several years ago by an act of the legislature, but which has never been operative for lack of an appropriation with which to maintain it. Dr. Brumby has hit upon a plan which it is believed will result in putting the law in operation, notwithstanding the failure of the state to provide for the maintenance of the bureau, which, under the law, is under the supervision of the state health department.

Dr. Brumby's plan is given in the following letter which he is sending to the secretaries of medical societies in the state, and replies of which are already being received in which they agree with Dr. Brumby and promise to give $1 each month from the funds of the medical societies in which to push the work to a successful issue:

"As you know, Texas has never accomplished much in the way of collecting vital statistics. In the past the monthly reports made by the county clerks have been pigeon-holed and never compiled, because the legislature has never provided a salary for a statistician. The physician, knowing that the reports were not compiled, has in many instances become careless, if not negligent, regarding his death and birth cards.

"Recently, however, by a supreme effort of my office force and assistants, I have succeeded in compiling a part of the reports from January, 1905, to August, 1907, inclusive, and I am pleased to see that we have some very valuable information stored away. This is true despite the fact that the law is a dead letter at present, and is becoming more so.

"I have hit upon a plan which I believe will make a decided and immediate change for the better. What we want is the most efficient enforcement of the law with the least inconvenience and friction possible. The way to get this is to get the co-operation of the physicians. Now my plan is this: For each county medical society in the state to contribute $1 per month in order that this work may be continued. That will raise a fund of about $100 per month. This is not a sufficient salary for a statistician, but I will agree to get a reliable man to work on these reports for that amount. This procedure will work well in several different ways:

"1. It will enable us to get data while the same is still useful.

"2. It will cause the doctors to be more careful in making reports, consequently our figures will be more accurate.

"3. It will be an object lesson: The profession, realizing its benefits to society, will foster and protect the same until it becomes patent to the public.

"4. The next legislature will undoubtedly come to the rescue, for they will realize its value, and will not have the physicians paying for state work out of their own pockets.

"Seeing that the proper data regarding the prevalence of diseases at different points in the state is the very basic idea of all vital statistics, this move certainly deserves support. We are working for something fundamental. Without reports we are entirely in the dark. It is the backbone of our system that we are working for.

"Before, I hope that you will take this matter up at your next meeting. Make all checks payable to me at Austin, and begin with the month of October."

AFTER PULLMAN COMPANY.

Suit to Oust It From Texas Has Been Filed at Austin.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 24.—On behalf of the state of Texas Attorney General Davidson has filed suit in district court here to oust the Pullman Palace Sleeping Car company from Texas for alleged failure to have permit to do business in the state. No attempt will be made to interfere with the company's interstate business.

The petition alleges that the Pullman company has never obtained a permit to do business in this state, yet it continues to transact business which aggregates annually over $389,000. That if this corporation be required to take out a permit it would net the state $2,040 in the way of charter fees, as this corporation has a capital stock of $100,000,000, so that if the Pullman company continues to operate in Texas without payment of fees provided by law in such cases and collects annually more than $389,000 for its services. The attorney general also asks for injunction to enjoin defendant company from doing business in Texas. The petition closes by praying that defendant company be adjudged by the court that corporation has no right or authority of law for performance of such corporate acts as aforesaid and of carrying on such business in Texas, and that defendant company be ousted of and from exercise of said corporate rights and franchises, and upon final hearing that it be enjoined from further exercising its corporate rights in Texas.

While the official returns of the recent election on the constitutional amendments has not yet been made public, it is learned all proposed amendments were defeated.

The governor is very wrathful regarding remarks made by certain attorneys at San Antonio concerning his attitude in his determination to enforce all laws, including the Baskin-McGregor act. The governor is determined to see that all laws are enforced in San Antonio as well as any where else in the state. He may give out a statement regarding this matter.

The governor will open formally the Dallas fair, Fort Worth Fat Stock show, Travis County fair, San Antonio fair, Brownsville and Bosque fairs.

FATE OF AMENDMENTS.

It Is Rumored That All Six of Them Were Lost.

Austin, Sept. 24.—It was rumored that all of the six constitutional amendments have been defeated, according to official returns. Included is that for the establishment of the Confederate women's home, which the press reported as adopted, and was the only one reported carried.

Secretary of State Dashiell was out of town, but Chief Clerk Little said that there is nothing definite about it, though those who have glanced at the tally sheets seem to think all of the amendments are lost, including that for the home, but he knows nothing positive.

If the women's home amendment is defeated it will be a great surprise.

CAMPBELL DENOUNCED.

Revenue Agent McDonald Also Was Subjected to Criticism.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 24.—The meeting of liquor dealers of Texas held here for the purpose of organizing a state association for mutual protection was a warlike affair. Governor Campbell and State Revenue Agent McDonald were both denounced in strong terms for the recent action in filing complaints against the San Antonio liquor dealers for not paying their state tax. Attendance was 390.

In his speech Judge R. H. Ward said: "It was a direct insult to the self-governing people of San Antonio for Captain D. McDonald, state revenue agent, to come over here from Austin and attempt to enforce certain provisions of the Baskin-McGregor law before the courts had interpreted the law. Governor Campbell to have sent him here."

This portion of the address was cheered to the echo.

An executive session was held and adjournment taken until Tuesday.

LADY SHOT TO DEATH.

Belief Is the Bullet Was Not Intended For Mrs. Bernard.

Lake Charles, La., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Washington A. Bernard was shot and instantly killed at her home, probably by some unknown person who was shooting at a lot of dogs that roam the streets at night in that neighborhood.

Several shots were fired and the lady being aroused, went to the window to look out, apparently just in time to be hit by a stray bullet. Her little daughter, who was also awakened, saw her mother reel as the last shot was fired and the family ran to her assistance, but she died immediately.

LEAD LONG IN LEG.

Portion of Bullet Is Extracted After Fifteen Years.

McKinney, Tex., Sept. 24.—A local physician extracted a portion of a forty-four calibre bullet from a leg of ex-County Treasurer B. H. Oates, which had been carried in the flesh over fifteen years.

Mr. Oates at that time was deputy sheriff and was desperately wounded in March, 1892, north of McKinney while trying to effect an arrest. The wound was near the thigh. Several portions of the shattered bullet were taken from the wound at the time he was shot.

MANY INDICTMENTS.

One Hundred and Thirty-One Returned in Western District.

Tulsa, I. T., Sept. 24.—One hundred and thirty-one indictments were returned by the September Federal grand jury Saturday. The indictments cover every class of crime, from murder down. This is the largest number of indictments ever returned by a grand jury here and is said to break the record in the Western district.

Lacerated by Mower.

McKinney, Tex., Sept. 24.—Grover Fowler of the Bois d'Arc community had a foot badly crushed and lacerated by being caught in a mowing machine when his team ran away. He was dragged about fifty yards. Several of the bones had been removed.

Head Crushed.

Marquez, Tex., Sept. 24.—Scott Petty, seventeen years old, had his skull fatally crushed in his brother's gin at Seale, ten miles from here.

Few Flakes of Snow.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—A few flakes of snow fell here Monday.

BREVITIES BUNCHED.

Childress, Tex., has street sprinklers.

A carload of Colorado honey was received at Dallas Monday.

Kate Stehling, fourteen years old, died at Victoria, Tex., from burns.

Two Polanders, while swimming the Rio Grande river at Laredo, drowned.

While descending a stairway S. L. Stapleton, a Dallas electrician, fell dead.

W. H. Schmitz, a former member of Emperor William's royal guard, suicided at Atlanta.

Stabbed nineteen times, the body of E. Arcara, a shirt factory proprietor, was found at New York.
